Part-Time Acting
Introduction to Performance and Theatre skills Programme
2019

The aim of this 12 week part-time course is to provide an entry point into the performing arts for aspiring actors with little training or experience. The course will provide a comprehensive foundation in the basic skills and techniques of acting, introducing a new concept each week. The 12th and final class will be a showcase of some of the work achieved during the course, giving the students the opportunity to perform and get feedback on their progress. Students will receive a certificate confirming that they have successfully completed the course, and will have the option to continue the following term.
